

WE'RE HIRING!

We are a small group of lawyers who have built a progressive litigation firm based on a more thoughtful and personal way of practicing law. We promise our clients value instead of billable hours, and we consistently provide that value by ensuring we care for the lawyers and staff who make up our team.

We believe clients should like their lawyers, and we believe everyone in our office should like each other. Life is too short to spend working with people who don't share our values. So, we're careful about who we bring on board. We don't hire jerks.

What We Offer

- A firm that takes seriously our responsibility to ensure you develop as a member of the firm and legal community.
- The opportunity to do interesting, challenging, and meaningful work alongside colleagues you respect, for clients you enjoy working with.
- The opportunity to be a part of a team, all committed to building something bigger and better.
- The opportunity to create meaningful change in our community through volunteer work in local community groups and non-profits.
- Competitive compensation and generous benefits.

Who We're Looking For-Associate Attorney

- All candidates are expected to have the following:
 - Good academic credentials
 - Background in civil litigation
 - Exceptional people skills
 - Glowing references from people who have reported to you in the past.
- In addition to these basic qualifications, we are hoping to find people who are:
 - Open minded and curious
 - Willing to question conventional opinion and take risks to find better ways to solve legal problems
 - Not afraid to speak up and be heard and who thrive on collaboration (as opposed to competition)
 - Willing to work hard (while we are a lot more informal than many other firms, we are also a culture of performance).

If you believe you have what we're looking for, and you get excited about our vision, we want to talk to you. Apply by sending a copy of your resume to ksenseney@ethridgelawgroup.com. We appreciate all those who submit applications, but only those selected for an interview will be contacted.
